Why Join:

Almost 8 out of 10 people will look into an internet directory when they are in need of a particular service. It is these 8 out of 10, who look into an online directory, who are likely to turn into potential clients coming with the positive intention to take service. This indirectly means, you know there are certain segment of searches that will convert into leads, and you need to ensure that they find the right direction to reach your site instead of turning towards the wrong direction.
